

The Center for Governmental Training & Technology is located in the 4 story high Bost Extension Center building (shaded on this map). Many of our local training programs are held in the smaller annex building (“Bost Building B”). Building B has a large covered area out front. Parking is available in the two parking lots around the Bost building and in the smaller lot in front of Building B.